ORAL HISTORY RECORDING AGREEMENT

The Scottish Council on Archives is dedicated to preserving the stories and experiences of the people of the Hebrides during the very unusual time of the Covid19 pandemic. In order to both preserve and highlight this oral history; the Scottish Council on Archives will create a webpage within the SCA website which will allow the information to be made available and publicly accessible. Your recorded interview will be summarised for archival purposes before being featured on the webpage permanently. Your recorded interview will be held in the archive and will also be featured on the SCA website. The purpose of this Agreement is to ensure that your contribution is added to both the website of the SCA and the Sgeulachd nan Eilean archive in Stornoway with your full consent.

This Agreement is made between The Scottish Council on Archives (SCA), Room 18 HM General Register House, 2 Princes Street, Edinburgh and you ("the Interviewee", "I"):
